Arnold Fletcher Award

The Arnold Fletcher Award recognizes Thomas Edison State College bachelor's degree graduates for exceptional achievement in nontraditional learning. Students selected for this award have demonstrated outstanding achievement by earning a minimum total of 90 credits from one or more of the innovative nontraditional learning modes recognized by the College. The award is named in honor of Dr. Arnold Fletcher, vice president emeritus who was the College's first academic vice president and pioneered many innovative methods of earning a College degree. Graduates wearing the gold double honor cords are the Arnold Fletcher Award recipients.

Alpha Sigma Lambda National Honor Society

Alpha Sigma Lambda National Honor Society was founded in 1945 to recognize adult students in higher education who have achieved academic excellence while fulfilling the many responsibilities of family, work and community services. The Thomas Edison State College Lambda Tau Chapter was established in 1996. For induction into this society students must have an overall Thomas Edison State College grade point average of 3.2 and have earned from Thomas Edison State College at least 24 graded credits of which 12 credits are in liberal arts/sciences. Student members are selected only from the top 20 percent of the group of qualified students. Graduates wearing the garnet and gold honor cords are the Alpha Sigma Lambda Honor recipients.

Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society

Kappa Delta Pi, the International Honor Society in Education, is an honor society recognizing the academic achievements and professional accomplishments of educators worldwide. Kappa Delta Pi is one of the largest and most prestigious educational honor societies in the world. With more than 500 active chapters, Kappa Delta Pi is dedicated to the ideals of fidelity to humanity, service, science and toil. As part of its goal, KDP recognizes scholarship and enhances the professional development of its members. The Thomas Edison State College Alpha Zeta Epsilon chapter was established in 2010. Membership is open to students matriculated in either the Heavin School of Arts and Sciences Master of Arts in Educational Leadership program or the Graduate Certificate in Educational Leadership program, have completed 6 credits, and have maintained a GPA of 3.5 or better. Graduates wearing the violet and jade honor cords are the Kappa Delta Pi Honor recipients.

Sigma Beta Delta International Honor Society

The Sigma Beta Delta International Honor Society recognizes scholarship and achievement among students of business, management and administration. The creation of Sigma Beta Delta follows a 200-year tradition of honoring scholastic achievement in higher education. The Thomas Edison State College Chapter was established in 2009. Students must be candidates for bachelor's or master's degrees in business and management and have completed at least 12 graded credits in the School of Business and Management. Undergraduate students must have a Thomas Edison State College grade point average of at least 3.5 and rank in the upper 20 percent of their graduating class and graduate students must have a Thomas Edison State College grade point average of at least 3.75 and rank in the upper 20 percent of their class. Students who have been recommended to be inducted are listed. Graduates wearing the green and gold cords are the Sigma Beta Delta International Honor Society recipients.

Sigma Beta Delta International Honor Society Fellowship Award

The Sigma Beta Delta International Honor Society Fellowship Award is given by Sigma Beta Delta upon the recommendation of the Sigma Beta Delta International Award Selection Committee. This award is presented annually in recognition of superior academic performance by students enrolled in business and management programs. For the 2015 academic year, Ms. Carol A. Wilson is the recipient of the Sigma Beta Delta International Honor Society Fellowship Award.

Ms. Wilson's selection was based on her superior undergraduate academic record, application essay, supporter recommendations and commitment to lifelong learning. She was chosen as one of 20 recipients from a highly competitive international applicant pool. To commemorate and memorialize her achievement, an individual plaque will be presented by the School of Business and Management.
