Honor Society Pledges

Alpha Sigma Lambda (Lambda Tau Chapter) National Honor Society Pledge

I promise to uphold the ideals and further the aims of Alpha Sigma Lambda, Believing that by so doing I shall increase my value to my university and to my community.

Kappa Delta Pi (Alpha Zeta Epsilon Chapter) International Honor Society in Education Pledge

I promise to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws of Kappa Delta Pi and to cooperate to expand the influence of its purpose and ideals.

The Honor Society of Nursing Sigma Theta Tau International (Upsilon Rho Chapter) Pledge

I accept membership in Sigma Theta Tau International, and I pledge to fulfill its commitment to nursing excellence, knowledge, service and leadership throughout my career.

Sigma Beta Delta International Honor Society Pledge

*I pledge myself to maintain and uphold the principles of Sigma Beta Delta International Honor Society in business, management and administration. I will pursue wisdom: I will accept honor; I will aspire to fulfill worthy goals. As a member of this chapter of Sigma Beta Delta, I will accept my responsibility to support and encourage its purposes.
I will continually seek to represent well my chapter, my university, and my nation, throughout my life.*

Arnold Fletcher Award

The Arnold Fletcher Award recognizes Thomas Edison State University bachelor's degree graduates for exceptional achievement in nontraditional learning. Students selected for this award have demonstrated outstanding achievement by earning a minimum total of 90 credits from one or more of the innovative nontraditional learning modes recognized by the University. The award is named in honor of Dr. Arnold Fletcher, vice president emeritus, who was the University's first academic vice president and pioneered many innovative methods of earning a University degree. Graduates wearing the gold double honor cords are the Arnold Fletcher Award recipients.

Alpha Sigma Lambda National Honor Society

Alpha Sigma Lambda National Honor Society was founded in 1945 to recognize adult students in higher education who have achieved academic excellence while fulfilling the many responsibilities of family, work and community services. The Thomas Edison State University Lambda Tau Chapter was established in 1996. For induction into this society students must have an overall Thomas Edison State University grade point average of 3.2 and have earned from Thomas Edison State University at least 24 graded credits of which 12 credits are in liberal arts/sciences. Student members are selected only from the top 20 percent of the group of qualified students. Graduates wearing the garnet and gold honor cords are the Alpha Sigma Lambda Honor recipients.

Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society

Kappa Delta Pi, the International Honor Society in Education, is an honor society recognizing the academic achievements and professional accomplishments of educators worldwide. Kappa Delta Pi is one of the largest and most prestigious educational honor societies in the world. With more than 500 active chapters, Kappa Delta Pi is dedicated to the ideals of fidelity to humanity, service, science and toil. As part of its goal, KDP recognizes scholarship and enhances the professional development of its members. The Thomas Edison State University Alpha Zeta Epsilon chapter was established in 2010. Membership is open to students matriculated in either the Heavin School of Arts and Sciences Master of Arts in Educational Leadership program or the Graduate Certificate in Educational Leadership program, have completed 6 credits, and have maintained a GPA of 3.5 or better. Graduates wearing the violet and jade honor cords are the Kappa Delta Pi Honor recipients.

Regina Sanchez-Porter Award

This award is in honor and memory of Regina Sanchez-Porter, PhD, RN, and is given annually to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing graduate of the W. Cary Edwards School of Nursing who has provided outstanding service to the profession and community, combined with high academic achievement. An individual plaque is presented and the recipient's name will be placed on a perpetual plaque in the W. Cary Edwards School of Nursing. This year's recipient is Patricia Hulick.

Ms. Hulick earned a Bachelor of Science degree in biology before deciding to become a nurse. She earned her Associates of Science degree in nursing at Mercer County Community College before coming to Thomas Edison State University to complete her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree (BSN). Ms. Hulick is currently a contract registered nurse case manager at Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst, which serves more than 16,000 active service members and their dependents, and retired service members and their families. Her community service work includes activities that enhance deployed soldier support at Joint Base Maguire-Dix-Lakehurst, and she volunteers at Tori Joy's Smiles, an organization dedicated to helping children experiencing difficult situations.
